Monterey to Be Scene of Coast YWBA Tourney

MONTEREY, Dec. 16 — To date, six sextettes of the Coast district have signified their intentions of participating in the annual C. D. YWBA cage tourney to be held in Monterey on Sunday, January 5.

Fumiko Owashi, Monterey YWBA member and chairman of the annual event in collaboration with Loraine Fujino of Salinas, C. D. YWBA athletic chairman, announced her committee for the event as follows: banquet, Shiyeko Kawamoto and Anita Takigawa; gate, Narae Tani; refreshments, Ruby Oda and Sumiko Takigawa; tickets, Molly Tsubouchi and Miss Owashi.

Teams entered are the San Jose Purplettes, Watsonville Starlettes, Salinas Bluettes, San Juan, Mt. View and Monterey. It was announced that any other C. D. sextette desirous of entering a team has until December 29, the deadline, in which to do so.

An interesting feature of the day's event will be a tentatively scheduled game between the Minato Poops and the touted San Francisco YMBA Poops. The game, which was the result of cooperation between Fumiko Owashi, Yoshio Tabata of Monterey and Hideo Kawahara of San Francisco, will be played just prior to the final girls' game of the tournament.

All games are to be played in the spacious local high school court.
